

ECO SYSTEMS OF OPEN SCIENCE SCHOOLING O V E R V I E W

SCENARIO 1	OCT-NOV 2020  CONSENSUS	Consensus Building capacity and solid consensus. This phase produces practically useful guidance to all practice partners, school teams and student teams.	ONLINE Kick-off
SCENARIO 2	DEC 2020 MAR 2021  ANALYZING	ECO-SYSTEMS OF OPEN SCIENCE SCHOOLING The school teams will drive the scenarios. They will, in collaboration with the student teams, analyse the various communities, science resources and create an “open science schooling resource map”. The overall aim of the scenarios is to create the first versions of the local/regional eco-systems of open science schooling	SCHOOL TEAM ECO-SYSTEM EMPOWERMENT 3 days MOBILITY Probably ONLINE
SCENARIO 3	APR-SEPT 2021  MISSIONS 1	ECO-SYSTEMS TESTING SCIENCE MISSIONS 1 First testing of how the student teams can learn science through open science schooling supported by the eco-systems of open science schooling in the practice communities. The scenario is student driven, with support from the school teams.
SCENARIO 4	OCT-NOV 2021  EVALUATION	EVALUATION AND KNOWLEDGE CREATION This scenario, organised around the second partner meeting, will cover 4 very important actions, ensuring a qualified transition between the two long eco-system testing scenarios.	Partner meeting 2 in Finland in October or November 2021
SCENARIO 5	DEC 2021 MAY 2022  MISSION 2	ECO-SYSTEMS TESTING SCIENCE MISSIONS 2 Based on the improved guidance produced in scenario 4, the scenario provides the second testing of how the student teams can learn science through open science schooling supported by the eco-systems. The scenario is student driven, with support from the school teams.	Student team’s co-creation empowerment MOBILITY 5 days in Netherlands in May 2022
SCENARIO 6	JUN-SEP 2022  PRODUCTIO	FINAL OUTCOMES AND SHARING The objective is to complete the project’s movement from experience to knowledge creation and to final outcomes.	Partner meeting 3 in Lithuania in AUG/SEP 2022

